

5th annual Click!

high school web competition

CALL FOR ENTRIES*

STUDENT WEB DESIGNERS / DEVELOPERS

The 5th annual Click! High School Web Competition is looking for talented students who want to show off their web design/development skills, and maybe win some cool prizes too!

Open to Northeast Ohio students in grades 9-12, the goal of the competition is to recognize, reward and encourage student web designer/developers.

WIN AN IPOD NANO!

The overall Grand Prize winner gets an iPod Nano, while First and Second Place winners in each category win gift certificates and other great prizes. All winners receive a handsome framed award certificate.

RECOGNIZE ■ REWARD ■ ENCOURAGE

Recognize: Winners receive handsome award certificates, have their work showcased on the Click! website, and are promoted via press releases and emails.

Reward: In addition to certificates, winners are eligible for a variety of prizes, ranging from "Designer for a Day" experiences to an iPod Nano.

Encourage: Each entry is reviewed by three or more professional web designer/judges. The judges' comments are sent to each entrant after the competition ends to help further develop his/her skills.

www.clickwebcompetition.com

Entry deadline: APRIL 22, 2007

Presented by: Cuyahoga Community College Visual Communications & Design department

Sponsored by: American Greetings Corporation

In cooperation with: The Web Association